

Summer vacations are synonymous with fun and frolic. However, this time it is different due to COVID-19 as children are already not going to school. We have tried to keep our “Summer holiday homework” simple and informative. So that our kids love to spend their time in completing it.

HERE ARE FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR PARENTS

- Make sure you are spending quality time with your wards amidst this tensed environment.
- Giving them small responsibilities in household work will help them to be independent.
- Try to indulge yourself in various indoor games with them.
- Teach them the importance of moral values.
- Encourage your child to cultivate the reading habits.
- Appoint a specific time to do homework everyday.

Instructions for holiday homework

- ✓ The work should be done systematically, neatly, creatively.
- ✓ Follow the instructions given in each activity.
- ✓ Originality of the work will be appreciated.
- ✓ The written work should be neatly presented in your own handwriting.
- ✓ Students are requested to complete the assignments in their subject notebooks under the guidance of parents.
- ✓ Marks will be awarded for holiday homework, when school will reopen.
